

Forest Invasive Species Workshop

Saturday, November 21, 2009

River Bend Nature Center Trailside Center

9:00-12:15

Objectives:

- Information about forest invasive species such as; buckthorn, garlic mustard, honeysuckle, black locust, amur maple, etc.
- Discussion on effective methods for controlling invasive species
- Information on methods to control woodland invasive species
- Tour of buckthorn controlled areas using different methods
- Information on herbicides available for controlling invasive species

Schedule:

9:00-9:05 Introductions

9:05-10:00 Background Information on Forest Invasives

10:00-10:10 Break

10:10-10:25 Landowner Testimonials - What has worked for controlling buckthorn?

10:25-10:40 Herbicide Information

10:40-11:10 Demonstration of Equipment

11:10-12:15 Tour of Buckthorn Controlled Areas

Cost: FREE!! Registration is required. (See below)

Location: Trailside Center at River Bend Nature Center

Directions: From Hwy 60 on the East side of Faribault follow the brown "Nature Center" signs that take you through a residential area. If you have trouble following the signs: from 1st St. SE (Hwy 60) turn south onto Shumway Ave., after one block turn left onto Division St., after several blocks turn right onto 10th Ave. SE, after several blocks you will be forced to turn left onto 5th St. SE, after several blocks turn right into our entrance on Rustad Road.

This event was organized as part of the Rice County Cooperative Weed Management Area (CWMA) with the assistance from:

Rice Soil and Water
Conservation District

REGISTRATION: Space is limited be sure to pre-register. Complete the following information and mail to Rice SWCD; 1810 30th St. NW; Faribault, MN 55021. Or email information to Danielle.waldschmidt@mn.nacdnet.net.

Name: _____ Phone: _____

Address: _____

Email: _____